I. BASIS FOR JURISDICTION

Federal courts are courts of limited jurisdiction (limited power). Generally, only two types of cases can be heard in federal court: cases involving a federal question and cases involving diversity of citizenship of the parties. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1331, a case arising under the United States Constitution or federal laws or treaties is a federal question case. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1332, a case in which a citizen of one State sues a citizen of another State or nation, and the amount in controversy is more than $75,000, is a diversity case. In a diversity case, no defendant may be a citizen of the same State as any plaintiff.

I looked up detective Tara A. Convery Shield #290 and just as I expected, She has done this several times to other men. She just didn't think that she'd be caught... Each time any woman comes around me and exchanges phone numbers, the New York City Police department would block my numbers via that woman's cell phone. Even if I didn't know that person, the New York City Police department would illegally wiretap his/her cell phones at tax payers expense.

The New York City Police department does not like that I filed a civil suit against them... Notice: I've been using a vintage typewriter? Because I am not allowed to go online, nor use any library type - the New York City Police have an A. P. B. on me...
